HIPAA Privacy Act

HIPAA refers to Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, which became law in 1996. This was created to protect the privacy of all healthcare information for each individual.

Some residents prefer to keep their names confidential. Rolling Hills does have a Privacy Officer.

Any complaints regarding confidentiality of a resident's protected health information is channeled through the Administrator, Social Services and/or the Director of Nursing.

For your role as a volunteer, you have access to the following information: identification of resident by name, household, and room number. Any additional information overheard or seen while volunteering must be kept confidential.

Recipe Corner

Garlic Bread Spread

- 1/2 C butter, softened
- 1/4 C grated parmesan cheese
- 2 cloves minced garlic
- 1/4 tsp dried marjoram
- 1/4 tsp dried basil
- 1/4 tsp fines herbs
- 1/4 tsp dried oregano
- 1/4 tsp dried parsley
- Ground black pepper to taste
- 1 loaf unsliced Italian bread

Preheat oven to 350. Mix butter, cheese, garlic, marjoram, basil, fines herbs, oregano, parsley and pepper together in a bowl until well combined. Slice Italian bread in half lengthwise. Spread each half generously with the garlic butter mixture. Transfer to baking sheet. Bake on the top rack until butter mixture melts and bubbles, about 10 to 15 minutes. Turn on the oven's broiler and broil until the bread is your desired shade of golden brown, 1-2 more minutes.
